Obstacle or Inconvenience?

In our lives, Christians must distinguish between the serious obstacles that impede our spiritual growth, and those inconveniences or difficulties that arise out of human experience.

In today's First Reading, disobeying God and his commandments is a serious obstacle that gets in the way of the spiritual growth of the person and the community.

In today's Second Reading, Saint Paul invites his audience to look beyond this life toward the hope of new life in the Risen Lord. In this new life, we trust that all obstacles can be overcome with the grace of God.

In the Gospel, the scribes accuse Jesus of being possessed by Satan. As he offers a defense with a teaching of his own, his mother and relatives arrive. As we face major obstacles in life, we have our Mother Mary, our family members, and the Church, to rescue and lead us down the path of true happiness in Christ.

It is important that missionary disciples of the community learn to distinguish between major obstacles that prevent spiritual maturity, and the minor inconveniences of their journey.

The Lord gives us his strength to conquer anything that keeps us from growing in his divine life, and helps us to have patience and peace to keep our eyes set daily on the new horizon of hope that helps us to proclaim his word of love.

Let us keep heart and soul open to receive that strength.

Father Ron

Hello fellow Holy Spirit Parishioners,

I am excited and thankful to take on this new opportunity as Office Manager. I know we will all miss Tara and her lovely family and I feel blessed to have been able to spend time with her and learn more about our wonderful parish.

I was born in southern California and spent my youth at St. Peter and St. Paul Parish in Rancho Cucamonga, where I have many fond memories of the church and my family's involvement with the Italian Catholic Federation (ICF) for over 30 years. I moved to the Bay Area to attend college at San Francisco State University where I received my Bachelors in Business, Family and Consumer Sciences. I enjoy art, traveling, reading, music, gardening and hiking.

My husband Brian and I met in college and have been married since 2009. We are blessed with two beautiful girls, Karine (7) and Kolette (5). We moved to Santa Rosa two years ago from Novato and immediately felt welcome at Holy Spirit. We are so grateful to be part of this parish and look forward to growing in our faith with all of you!

Many Blessings,
Robyn Tubiolo-Wood

The Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching

Love of God and love of neighbor cannot be separated. To help us keep these two connected, the Church provides us with Catholic social teachings which promote justice and dignity for all human beings.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person:

God made each person, so every life is important and should be protected.

Call to Family, Community, and Participation:

God made us to be part of communities, families and countries, so all people can share and help each other.

Rights and Responsibilities:

God wants us to help make sure everyone is safe and health and can have a good life.

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable:

God wants us to help people who are poor, who don't have enough food, a safe place to live, or a community.

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers:

Work is important in God's plan for adults and their families, so jobs and pay should be fair.

Solidarity:

God made everyone, so we are all brothers and sisters in God's family wherever we live.

Care for God's Creation:

The world was made by God, so we take care of all creation.
