Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time — June 22-23, 2024

... From Your Pastor's Desk

“Be not Afraid. I go before you always. Come follow me, and I will give you rest”. Great words from a song written by Bob Dufford, S.J. The beginning of the second verse is very poignant for today’s Gospel: “If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown...”

The disciples in today’s gospel were on the Sea of Galilee when a violent storm occurred - yet Jesus slept soundly. They were terrified, so, they awakened Him asking for help. They had seen Him work other miracles and believed he could calm the raging storm. Their fears were certainly justified.

Fear is applicable not only in times of great crisis but also in times of ordinary crisis, for fear indeed plays a great part in our lives. Like for example, if we do not have enough money to buy our daily food and other basic needs. Or, if we are lost in the dark and cannot find our way.

We are afraid of many things, some legitimately, for self-preservation. But some also unwarranted. What is it that we are afraid of? If we are overly afraid of something, our focus will be on that something and we may tend to forget the most important thing in our lives and that is: doing our part as followers of Christ and not to be afraid because, just as he assured his disciples those words of assurance are still addressed to us today.

As we hear of Peter’s boat being tossed about dangerously by these stormy waves, we can readily think of the Church in the stresses and tensions of its existence in the world. Perhaps we are tempted to think that the Lord has no interest in us, he is neglecting us and he is asleep. We sometimes fall into fatalism by saying: “It must be God’s Will.” Rather. Let us call upon the words of Jesus: “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?” Did they stop to think that he was with them in the same boat? He is with us in ours as well, fulfilling his promise to be with us always.

Hmmm... did you ever think of it that way?

Yours in Faith,

Father Ron

THRIVE SPIRITUALLY IN TODAY'S SECULAR WORLD

One challenge for contemporary Catholics is balancing a faithful, God-centered life with the secular temptations of modern society.

Here's how we can constructively engage with the world while staying devout:

Weave faith into daily life:

Incorporate prayer and devotion into your daily routines. Dedicate at least 15 minutes to prayer each day, observe seasonal devotions, and celebrate Catholic liturgical feasts to connect faith with everyday life.

Dialogue with others of different faiths:

Engage in discussions with people of differing religious beliefs to deepen your own spiritual understanding and commitment. This not only challenges you to know and critically consider your faith but also helps you articulate your beliefs clearly, fostering a deeper personal connection to Catholicism.

Community engagement:

Actively participate in service activities that re-ect Catholic values. This practical application of your beliefs demonstrates a faith committed to loving your neighbor. By embracing these practices, we can maintain our Catholic identity and have a positive impact on others.

REGISTRATION FORMS FOR 2024-2025 FAITH FORMATION CLASSES ARE AVAILABLE AT THE BACK OF CHURCH.
