11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Writing below was originally crafted in 2019, but it bears repeating. So, here is an updated version.

...from your Pastor's Desk

Nobody Sunday?

For the last 16 Weekends every Sunday has had a title from 'The First Sunday of Lent' on March 22nd up until last week's feast of 'The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ'. So, when I first looked at the readings for today – I saw it was just 'The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time'. I jokingly said to myself – aha – 'No-body Sunday'. My next thought was – let's make it 'Every-Body Sunday!' – And rightfully so. We have just come through a very busy season. For some of you these past few months have been a time of preparation, be it preparing your own or your teenage child for Confirmation, your own or your young son or daughter for first Holy Communion, or indeed, for some, both!

Preparation to receive any of the Sacraments comes with many things to be done but despite this, nothing quite beats the feeling of joy and pride when we see our young people, or any sister or brother parishioners, taking the next step on their faith journey. Be it Baptism, Confirmation or First Holy Communion or adult converts professing our faith or Weddings, such steps are milestones in the life of a Catholic. We are truly blessed with parishioners receiving Sacraments. And, the fact that we have young people ready and willing to own their faith is surely a credit to both them and to you, their parents and families – for this, may God bless and reward you all.

The family unit has often been so beautifully described as "the Domestic Church" in which each family is called upon to be the first school of the Gospel where children are taught what it means to live in a loving and stable environment; taught how to pray, taught to love God and neighbor, to honor their parents and to live out their faith in accordance with the precepts of the Church. We live in a time when traditional family life is often undermined and even considered by some as an out-of-date concept. Regardless who or how many sit (s) around our dinner table each night - Let us strive to live out our high calling as Catholic families, Catholic households, in the community and may God continue to bless each and every one of you; for in reality – no matter what feast we celebrate – when it comes to God's Love – EVERY Sunday is about us for every Sunday is FOR us.

Happy 'Every-Body Sunday' to us all!

Father Ron

Some people attending mass here are surprised to find out that they are not registered as parishioners. After all, they have been attending for years and contributing. Although not necessary, please note, that if you have never filled out a Registration Form in the office or online, then you are probably not registered as a parishioner. It is alright to be registered at more than one church. If you are unsure or would like to update your details, please contact Ruth at 707.539.4495 or email office@holyspiritSR.org.

There are forms at the back of church which can be dropped off in our mailbox.

Hope helps us desire Heaven and trust in God's promises. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches that hope "responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every man" (CCC, 1818). It strengthens us to persevere through difficulties and keeps our hearts fixed on God. Here are three ways to renew and strengthen hope:

Shift your focus:

Do not allow past regrets, future fears, or present worries to dominate your thoughts. Read the daily Gospel before the news. When you catch yourself worrying or dwelling on negativity, intentionally redirect your mind toward God's promises. Keep encouraging Scripture verses – such as Romans 8:37 – visible on your phone, mirror, or coffee maker as reminders of hope throughout the day.

Fight temptation with the opposite virtue:

In the spiritual life, virtues overcome vices. Counter doubt with acts of faith, complaints with gratitude, and comparison with encouragement and appreciation for others.

Become a source of hope:

Build others up rather than focusing on faults. Frequently ask, "What can I do to improve this situation?" Christian hope is not blind optimism, but confidence in Christ, the One who is "Faithful and True" (Revelation 19:11).
